AS OTHERS SEE IT.

Under the caption of a 'Slick Scheme' the Elko Independent has the following:

The persecutors of Jos. Langevin, whose evidence in the Heney case did so much toward his conviction and which was mainly instrumental in landing Barney Brule behind the bars of the Storey county jail for contempt of court in bribing witnesses, had him arrested in Carson last week on a charge of insanity. His examination took place before Judge Mack last Saturday and several witnesses testified to the queer actions of Langevin since the Heney trial. Langevin told the Court of the persecution he had suffered at the hands of the Water Co. and hoodlums of Carson. Ex-Governor Adams, Judge Hawley and others testified to Langevin's sanity and Drs. Herrick and Fox swore that they had not sufficient evidence to warrant Langevin being held. At the conclusion of the evidence, Judge Mack promptly discharged Langevin and took occasion to say that he considered it a disgrace to those who had annoyed Langevin.

The evidence, as published in the APPEAL, reveals a state of affairs that should bring the blush of shame to every honorable man and woman in Carson. The decent citizens of the Capital city owe it not only to their own good name, but to the people of the whole State, to put a stop to these disgraceful proceedings at once. If the proper authorities will not do it there should be honorable men enough in Carson to see that Joseph Langevin and other witnesses for the prosecution in the Mint cases are protected from the petty annoyances of hoodlums. If other methods fail, Langevin should fill some of his tormentors full of lead.

The arrest of Langevin on the charge of insanity had a deep laid scheme behind it. If Judge Mack had committed Langevin to the asylum, his testimony would have stricken out of the Mint case and been of no use in the contempt cases says the APPEAL.

Balked in this desperate move, what will the Mint gang do next? The Government should see to it that the ringleaders in the bribery cases are put behind the bars to join the rest already there. The good name of Carson and the whole State demands that this be done.

"DRILL! YOU TARRIERS DRILL!"

Tremor Coffin will make some startling exposures if he has to go to jail for his work in the Heney case. A tremendous pull is being exerted to save him and social and business fabrics in Carson are trembling on the verge of an earthquake.

The moment he is downed the doors of his safe will swing open and such a lot of documentary revelations will come forth as were never dreamed of in this city.

The people involved know perfectly well that Coffin, who has no sentiment in his breast but business, will not hesitate to explode the whole batch of compromising documents that he has guarded so carefully all these years. He holds a lot of people in his hand and they must now get in and work. It has reached a point where it is a clear case of "Drill! You Tarrriers Drill!"

In speaking of the pull of the millionaires with the press of San Francisco, Arthur McEwen writes in his syndicate letter:

Once the whole press of San Francisco was absolutely silenced about a man of whom the discovery was made that though he stood well here, he had been a great criminal in the East. But the press beyond the guild's sphere of influence gave the news, and the silence of the local newspaper did the man no good.

Mr. McEwen would have made his article more pointed if he had stated that it was the Kissane case to which he had reference, and that it was the Bee which presented all the facts in that celebrated stroke of newspaper enterprise.

R. D. Clark went into the Mint yesterday as Deposit Melter taking the place of Earnest Harris. The selection of Mr. Clark for the responsible position is an excellent one.—APPEAL

Is this the same Clark whose testimony greatly assisted during the mint trial? If so, we must presume that the removal of Mr. Harris indicates that his testimony was not in the same direction.—News.

To one who heard the evidence comment is unnecessary.
